Directors of Time

There was an award-winning creative work that the legendary entrepreneur Steven Paul Jobs was so proud of. It was about honoring those who did their part in elevating the world upwards because those that are extraordinary enough to think that they can improve the world through their own contributions are the ones that actually do.

The work honored such enlightened icons from the world's intelligentsia as Sir Alfred Hitchcock, Picasso, Martin Luther King, Prof. Albert Einstein and other aristocrats of their own fields, professions, crafts and spheres ...

Inspired by this sincere work, I wrote an analogical tribute speech of The Intelligentsia magazine:

Here is to the freethinkers of this world!
 Here is to those who serve humanity rather than the system!
 Here is to those who value quality over quantity!
 Here is to the discerning ones with a Third Eye or Lev Shomea!
 Here is to the ones guided by beauty and timeless Truth!
 Here is to the cultured and actualized ones!
 Here is to those who focus on a Purpose, not on a pseudo-zeitgeist!
 Here is to the orchestrators of the next Renaissance!
 Here is to the empyreal ones!
 Here is to all the wonderers above the mist!
 ...
 Here is to the Illuminated ones!
